

I.T.S. Fatherhood Brand Identity Kit

Impact & Intelligence Platform · March 2026

01 · CORE PATTERN

Dark Editorial Hero

The signature visual language: dark backgrounds with white serif headlines and blue accent text. This treatment defines the I.T.S. Fatherhood brand across web, presentations, and print covers.

HEADLINE FORMULA

White serif (Playfair Display 800) for the anchor statement. Blue accent for the transformative or active portion. Creates visual hierarchy within a single headline.

BUTTON SYSTEM

Primary: Filled navy, white text. One per section. Secondary: White outline, muted text. Tertiary: Blue outline, blue text.

EYEBROW TEXT

Space Mono, 10px, letter-spacing 4px, uppercase, I.T.S. Blue. Introduces every section and anchors the hierarchy above the headline.

The System Gap Pattern

Large serif numbers paired with supporting context. This pattern communicates research authority and impact metrics across the website, reports, and grant proposals.

THE SYSTEM GAP

Fatherhood is discussed everywhere. Measured almost nowhere.

4,000+

Fatherhood programs in the U.S.
Without a shared outcome framework

$140M+

Annual public investment
With limited longitudinal data

Data Card Rules

Numbers use Playfair Display 800 in Navy. The "+" or "M" suffix uses Blue for visual accent. Supporting text in DM Sans. Cards have a 1px border, 12px radius, white background. Always pair a bold claim (left) with evidence cards (right).

Brand Colors

Navy and blue from the logo. Gold accent for energy and legacy. Dark charcoal for editorial hero sections.

DATA & LABELS

05 · BRAND VOICE

Personality & Application

Every touchpoint should feel grounded, empowering, and data-forward. The brand lives at the intersection of warmth and intelligence.

Tone of Voice

Warm but authoritative. Direct, encouraging, solution-oriented. Use "fathers" not "clients." Lead with empathy, follow with data.

Photography

Authentic and candid. Fathers with children, mentorship in action. Warm lighting. Never staged. Diverse representation.

Vertex Pulse Mark

Data-node figures connected through neural mesh with gold pulse heart. Watermark at 4%, section divider, social avatar.

Gold Accent Signature

Gold bar beneath headings, document footers, CTA buttons, progress indicators. It signals I.T.S. presence and legacy.

Dark Editorial Canvas

Dark charcoal hero sections are the brand's signature. Serif headlines in white + blue against black. Use for website heroes, slide covers, and report covers.

Digital & Social

Icon mark = social avatar. Post templates use dark editorial style. #ITSFatherhood #MetaDAD #FathersTable #FatherhoodResearch

07 · USAGE GUIDELINES

Do's and Don'ts

Consistent application builds trust across all materials.

DO

- ✓ Use Playfair Display 800 for all editorial headlines
- ✓ Split headlines: white for anchor, blue for active statement
- ✓ Use the dark charcoal (#111114) for hero sections
- ✓ Apply the three-button hierarchy (filled, outline, accent)
- ✓ Use Space Mono for all eyebrow text and data labels
- ✓ Maintain the gold accent bar in all official documents
- ✓ Use the Vertex Pulse icon mark for social and favicons

DON'T

- ✗ Don't use serif headlines on light backgrounds without navy color
- ✗ Don't mix more than two colors in a single headline
- ✗ Don't use pure black (#000) — always use charcoal (#111114)
- ✗ Don't skip the eyebrow text above hero headlines
- ✗ Don't recolor the navy/blue figure pairing in the logo
- ✗ Don't use the logo below minimum size (140px digital)
- ✗ Don't place the logo on busy or low-contrast backgrounds
